

Encounter with a Wizard

George was going in the forest one day when he saw smoke coming out of a chimney of a weird house. What was unusual about the smoke was the fact that it was red in color. Have you ever seen red smoke before?

George had neither. He rushed to that house and peeped in from the window. He was curious as ever and he saw a tall wizard, draped in a black gown and wearing a black hat, mixing and stirring a big pot of liquid. "Ewww", said George, "This smells bad". Red smoke from the pot filled up the air.

The wizard turned and saw George near the window. "Ha ha ha, so I have a visitor here to taste my special frog-and-lizard porridge. Come here boy, and I will give you a bowl of it". Next, he let out a squeal of laughter.

George was frightened. He turned around and ran away at the top of his speed and did not dare to look back, not even once!

---

Encounter with a Wizard

---

Answer the following questions.

1. What did George see in the forest?

---

---

2. Have George or you seen red smoke before?

---

---

3. From the window, George saw

---

---

4. Where was the red smoke coming out from?

---

---

5. What did the wizard say to George?

---

---

6. What did George do in the end?

---

---

7. weird

- a. sly
- b. clever
- c. expensive
- d. strange

8. stirring

- a. writing
- b. drinking
- c. mixing
- d. hiding