Alan Helps A Dog

Alan could not sleep that night. He turned in his bed again and again. He got up and looked out of the window. Then he went to bed again.

He was feeling frightened. He could hear a strange noise tonight. Every time he closed his eyes, he heard something. He went down and saw his parents had gone to sleep in their room. His pet parrot was also sleeping peacefully in its cage.

He went up again. The wind was blowing hard. He looked out of the window again. This time he saw something lying on the road. "It's a dog", said Alan. He went down and out of the house and picked the poor thing up.

It had had a bad accident and its left foot was injured. It was yelping in pain. Alan took the dog inside and cleaned its foot with water. Next, he applied some soothing lotion and tied up a bandage. Then he put it to sleep. The dog was contented and felt better in the morning.
