Ali writes a story

Ali wants to write a story. He picks up a sheet of paper and a pencil. Then he starts to think. "What must I write about?" he says to himself, "I know, I will write a story about two naughty kids who are teasing their cook".

Now what must the kids be like? Yes, one kid will be a small boy. He will be thin and fair, wearing glasses on his face. He will be wearing a blue t-shirt and a cool grey shorts. The other kid will be a little girl. She will have long hair and chubby cheeks.

Together these two kids will annoy the cook working in their kitchen. The cook will be tall and slim. She will have a crooked nose and curly short hair. She will be wearing a long hat on her head just like a chef. Whenever the kids will annoy her, she will take off her long hat and point at them with it and shout, "Go away from the kitchen, at once!"
