My grandmother

My grandmother lives with me. She has silver hair and usually wears white clothes. Her room is right beside my own room. Every evening after completing my home work, I go to her room and she gives me a chocolate.

Each night, before sleeping, I go to her room again to say good night to her. But she doesn't let me go. She makes me sit on her bed and she tells me a story. Sometimes, she tells me stories of soldiers who fought very bravely in a war and sometimes of her friends who played with dolls and doll houses. Her stories are always very good and I love to listen to them. I cannot go to sleep without listening to her story.

Another great thing about my grandmother is that she gives me wonderful gifts on my birthdays, Eid day and other occasions. Sometimes, she gives me a story book and sometimes a new board game.

I love my grandmother and respect her. I cannot dream of living without her!
