

The Wolf is Caught

The clouds were dark and it was raining. Tharack, the shepherd, quickly led his flock of sheep to a safe place. The sheep were cold and wet and they ran behind him, hoping to reach some kind of shelter soon.

Out came a wolf from behind a bush and saw Tharack and his sheep trotting in the field. "Oh, these sheep will make a superb lunch for me", thought the wolf. He went slowly towards them and hid behind a huge rock, making a plan in his mind when to attack them.

Suddenly, a huge lorry appeared and stopped nearby. It had a huge container behind it and the lorry driver opened it up so the sheep would all go inside it and be safe from rain. But, Tharack spotted the wolf. He caught it from behind it and with the help of the lorry driver, dragged it inside the container and locked it.

They called a few officers to help them who took the wolf away. Now the sheep were put inside the container and taken back to Tharack's farm.
