

Find the Abstract Nouns

As you read the sentences below, think about each noun carefully. Is it something you touch, see, hear, smell or taste? If you can, it's a concrete noun. If not, it is an abstract noun.

Circle all of the abstract nouns.

1. The pages at the castle were full of curiosity.
2. The knights laugh at the silliness of the pages.
3. The knights show their happiness when the pages bring back shiny armor.
4. Children run around the castle lands with no fear.
5. The rulers make sure their peasants have a life filled with love and happiness.
6. Families show affection toward each other by helping in the fields to grow food.
7. Parents laugh at the playfulness of their little children.
8. The children point at the fireworks with great excitement.
9. The magician waved his wand with enthusiasm.
10. The elders of the castle share their wisdom with their children and grandchildren.