

Find the Abstract Nouns

As you read the sentences below, think about each noun carefully. Is it something you touch, see, hear, smell or taste? If you can, it's a concrete noun. If not, it is an abstract noun.

Circle all of the abstract nouns. There is at least one (but maybe more) abstract noun per number.

1. Our freedom is very important to us.
2. That was a great nap.
3. Mrs. Harrison said, "That's a wonderful thought."
4. I'm afraid this newest release will only breed confusion.
5. He has such a wonderful talent.
6. I think I've lost my appetite.
7. The thrill of the hunt is gone.
8. My fear is that I will lose all my hair.
9. That puppy is such a beauty.
10. You have my sympathy.
11. The memories are tough to forget.
12. His luck was incredible!
13. She's got great rhythm.
14. The argument was won by neither person.
15. The hermit found peace in the loneliness of living by himself.

For more worksheets visit www.letsshareknowledge.com