

Adjectives in Sentences

Adjectives are words that describe what something feels, looks, sounds, tastes or smells like. They are describing words.

In the following sentences, the adjectives are underlined.

The pink cat jumped over the tall fence.

The large surfboard surged through the foamy water.

The sharp tack hurt as it went into Jane's tiny foot.

In the following sentences, underline the adjectives. There may be more than one adjective per sentence.

1. The tall glass almost tipped over.
2. Jenny bumped the wobbly table.
3. The warm and pleasant pool water was a nice touch.
4. Our orange and black cat howled at the full moon.
5. The new smartphone was unattended.
6. Isabelle shivered as she touched the cold ice.
7. The flaky croissant was gone.
8. The pretty dog won the contest.