

Linking Verbs

Linking verbs are words that help the action verb.
Linking verbs can include forms of be, can, do, has, will, shall, may and might.

In the following sentences, underline the linking verbs.

1. My dog is jumping over the branch.
2. The wind might blow down the trees.
3. The children may slide down the board.
4. The sun is shining on the lake.
5. The water can ripple from the stone you throw.
6. John can walk his cat on her leash.
7. The child will jump on the trampoline tomorrow.
8. Isabelle has sung often in school.
9. Mary may dance with Mark at the dance.
10. Mark is spying on his brother again.
11. Chris can jump very high.
12. The fish was swimming against the current.
13. Rob is fishing at the lake today.