

Linking Verbs

Linking verbs are words that help the action verb.
Linking verbs can include forms of be, can, do, has, will, shall, may and might.

In the following sentences, underline the linking verbs.

1. The cat can bat the ball of yarn across the room.
2. Josh's horse is trotting across the corral.
3. He will do his homework right now.
4. The leaf was floating gently to the ground.
5. Mr. Clark is driving to the store.
6. My clock can tick very loudly in the quiet night.
7. The rain is pounding on the roof.
8. The wind can howl through the trees.
9. Oso's father will drive us home after the movie.
10. Aunt Jean is thinking about her missing dog.
11. Molly was carrying the red box to the car.
12. Max shall clean his room before he goes.
13. My brother can juggle six plates at a time.