

Parts of Speech

Preposition: A preposition specifies a location or location in time.

about	at	by	over	since
above	behind	for	through	toward across	between	in	to	with

In the following sentence, the prepositions are colored in light blue.

Oh! The little boy ran quickly through the high grass to get his dad.

Conjunction: A conjunction joins words, phrases or clauses together.

and	yet	so	while	that
also	if	when	as	because
then	or	then	until	unless

In the following sentence, the conjunctions are colored in dark blue.

Oh! The little boy ran quickly through the high grass until he reached his dad.

Interjection: An interjection expresses emotion.

It is often followed by an exclamation point.

hey	oh	so	sorry	hello
wow	yeah	look	stop	ha
whew	ah	help	gosh	bye

In the following sentence, the conjunctions are colored in purple.

Oh! The little boy ran quickly through the high grass until he reached his dad.

For more worksheets visits www.letsshareknowledge.com