

Choose a Preposition

Underline the prepositions in each sentence. Remember, a preposition is a word that specifies a location or location in time). There might be more than one preposition in a sentence.

1. The cat sat over the television.
2. The soccer player ran toward the goal.
3. The remote slipped between the cushions.
4. I sat upon the cushions on the floor.
5. He bought a game in place of the broken toy.
6. I sat below the arch of St. Louis.
7. The bench sat across from the big oak tree.
8. The tulips were growing around the field of flowers.
9. I ran to the base when it was my turn.
10. I live near the school, on West Street.