

Prepositions

A preposition is a word that shows a relationship between a noun (or pronoun) and some other word in the sentence.

Some prepositions tell you where people or things are located:

Isabelle walked through the door.

His phone is under my chair.

Other prepositions describe time relationships:

I went with my brother after I made dinner.

We told ghost stories during our campfire.

Some common prepositions include:

aboard	beneath	over
about	beside	past
across	between	plus
after	beyond	regarding
against	but	round
along	by	save
amid	despite	since
among	down	than
around	during	through
as	inside	to
at	except	toward
before	onto	under
behind	opposite	underneath
below	outside	up