

A conditional phrase is a condition of something happening. Conditionals talk about both real and unreal situations in the present and future tense.

Conditional phrases often include the words: if, when, in case, unless, provided, whether, as long as, on condition. Underline the conditionals in the following sentences.

1. If you study hard you will pass the exam.
2. You may use my soccer ball on the condition that you put it back where it was when you're done.
3. If I had a pet Iguana, I'd name it Iggy.
4. If they shared a room they would fight a lot.
5. As long as you're practicing, review those scales again.
6. If I am ill we are staying home tomorrow.
7. You'll need to clean your room whether you agree or not.
8. Whether or not you're ready, here we come.
9. If my friends agree, we're going to the mall.
10. I need new tires whether I can afford it or not.
