

A conditional phrase is a condition of something happening. Conditionals talk about both real and unreal situations in the present and future tense.

Underline the conditionals in the following sentences.

1. Sheila will cook dinner if we buy the food.
2. Janet would go skiing if she liked the cold weather.
3. I will buy the popcorn if you buy the candy.
4. When I need advice, I call my best friend.
5. Whether he goes swimming depends on the water temperature tomorrow.
6. In case I don't do well on my exam, I completed the extra credit work.
7. If it doesn't rain, we are going to the beach tomorrow.
8. He must be a great drummer if he plays in a band.
9. If I had more time, I'd finish writing my novel.
10. If I wasn't losing my hearing, I'd enjoy the concert more.