

Words that rhyme share similar (or the same) sound, usually in the final syllable.

For example, the word ball rhymes with wall, because both share the same ending sound - "all". The word dog rhymes with fog, because both share the same ending sound - "og".

Here are some more examples of rhyming words:

| | |
|---------|---------|
| chip | dip |
| goose | loose |
| berry | dairy |
| clam | ham |
| coffee | toffee |
| crumb | gum |
| custard | mustard |
| ice | rice |