

A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought, asks a question, or issues a command. A sentence usually contains a subject and predicate (verb).

Sentences should tell you both who (or what) did something, and what they did. The sentences are missing a subject (who did something). For each sentence, pick a subject to complete the sentence.

1. _____ dropped his favorite mug.
2. _____ played with her dolls.
3. _____ played video games late last night.
4. _____ didn't finish his homework.
5. _____ was the fastest in the class.
6. _____ made me laugh really hard.
7. _____ floated through the air.
8. _____ swooped down to the river.
9. _____ was loud.
10. _____ went to bed late tonight.
