

Answers

1. What does the word unanimous mean?
Unanimous means everyone was in full agreement.
2. How many times was George Washington elected President of the United States?
George Washington was elected twice by the electoral college, and it was unanimous both times.
3. Why do you think George Washington was unanimously elected?
Answers will vary, but may include:
George Washington was unanimously elected because he was very well liked; because his opinion and views were well respected, etc.
4. Why is George Washington considered a "founding father" of the United States of America?
George Washington is considered a "founding father" of the United States of America because his views helped shape the formation of the United States of America and our government.
5. What part of speech is the word "President"?
The word "President" is a noun.
6. Describe what the underlined word means in the following sentence: "George Washington was instrumental in defeating the British."
Instrumental means influential, or important.