

George Washington

President's Day is celebrated in January every year in the United States to honor our Presidents and their accomplishments. George Washington was the first President of the United States, and today his face is on the one-dollar bill.

George Washington was a founding father of the USA. His views of how a democratic and fair government should be formed, helped form the United States of America and our government.

George Washington was named Commander-in-Chief of the Continental Army in the American Revolution. He helped lead battles against England when we declared the United States independent.

He was an amazing strategist and helped capture two major British armies at Saratoga and Yorktown. George Washington was instrumental in defeating the British. He not only selected excellent generals to lead the armies, he coordinated with Congress and state militias, and attended to training and supply ordering.

Washington is the only president to be unanimously elected by the electoral college, and he was unanimously elected twice. He is consistently ranked in the top three United States Presidents.
