

Page 4

1. Penguins are carnivores and generally eat fish, krill and squid.
2. Penguins are aquatic and flightless birds that live on every continent in the Southern Hemisphere.
3. Most penguins look like they are wearing a tuxedo, but this is called countershading - a form of camouflage that protects them in the water.

Page 5

1. Each and every living being in an ecosystem, has a specific role to play to ensure their survival.
2. Both producers and consumers are necessary for other consumers to survive.

Page 6

1. Captain Awesome was the best superhero ever!
2. Wow, what a mess her friends and her had made last night.

Page 7

1. Mike learned that while both alligators and crocodiles belong to the group of reptiles called crocodilians, they have quite a few differences.