

Play Scripts: Characters

Worksheet 1

Read the following lines from a sample play. Circle the characters in the play script.

Dad: "Where is your brother hiding?"

Sam: "I saw him head toward the bedroom."

Dad: "I guess I will need to go find him."

(tiptoeing up the stairs toward the boys bedroom)

Dad: "Dougie? Dougie? I bet you are hiding in here somewhere!"

(giggling)

Dad: "I think I hear something coming from the closet..."

(more giggling)

Dad: "Hmmm, where could that little boy be hiding?"

(giggling from behind Dad)

Now that you have read the beginning of the play write some lines for the two characters that have been introduced. Make sure to write the dialogue correctly and label who is speaking.

Answer Sheet

Dad: "Where is your brother hiding?"

Sam: "I saw him head toward the bedroom."

Dad: "I guess I will need to go find him."

(tiptoeing up the stairs toward the boys bedroom)

Dad: "Dougie? Dougie? I bet you are hiding in here somewhere!"

(giggling)

Dad: "I think I hear something coming from the closet..."

(more giggling)

Dad: "Hmmm, where could that little boy be hiding?"

(giggling from behind Dad)

Now that you have read the beginning of the play write some lines for the two characters that have been introduced. Make sure to write the dialogue correctly and label who is speaking.

Answers will vary, but should make sense with what is already written
