

Play Script Questions

Worksheet 3

Look at the short scene from the play written below, then answer the questions that follow.

(Excitedly moving around grabbing stuff from the room)

Nikki: "Hurry up! We have ten minutes to get everything together before the new horse will be dropped off."

Amanda: "I'm coming, I'm coming. What does he look like?"

Nikki: "He is solid black except for one white mark on his forehead. Is his stall ready?"

(Truck tires can be heard in the driveway. Both girls run to the edge of the barn to watch the trailer)

Nikki: "He's here! I can't wait to ride."

1. Who has the first dialogue in this sample?

2. Who are the characters in this play script?

3. What emotion is Nikki supposed to show according to stage direction?

4. What would be a good title for this sample?

5. How can you tell where the girls are standing at the end?

6. What is Nikki excited to do?

Answer Sheet

Play Script Questions

Worksheet 3

Look at the short scene from the play written below, then answer the questions that follow.

(Excitedly moving around grabbing stuff from the room)

Nikki: "Hurry up! We have ten minutes to get everything together before the new horse will be dropped off."

Amanda: "I'm coming, I'm coming. What does he look like?"

Nikki: "He is solid black except for one white mark on his forehead. Is his stall ready?"

(Truck tires can be heard in the driveway. Both girls run to the edge of the barn to watch the trailer)

Nikki: "He's here! I can't wait to ride."

1. Who has the first dialogue in this sample?

Nikki

2. Who are the characters in this play script?

Nikki and Amanda

3. What emotion is Nikki supposed to show according to stage direction?

Excitement

4. What would be a good title for this sample?

Answers will vary

5. How can you tell where the girls are standing at the end?

By reading the stage directions

6. What is Nikki excited to do?

Ride her horse