

Play Script: Writing Dialogue

Worksheet 5

Read the short scene below. There is lots of dialogue but it is not written correctly. Remove the unnecessary punctuation to make the dialogue correct.

(Two people standing in line at a store)

Jason: "What did you buy while we were here?"

Colby: "I picked out two new shirts and a pair of jeans."

(Colby gets a big smile on his face)

Colby: "I also got this (pointing at a new toy in a box) new train."

Jason: (excitedly) "Wow that is the coolest train I have ever seen!"

Colby: "If you want you can come and play at my house?"

Jason: "I'll have to ask my mom, but I bet she will say I can."

Colby: "I hope you can! We can get the new train set put together and play engineer."

Cashier: "That will be 22.35 young man."

Colby: "Here you go, mom gave me money to get some stuff."

Jason: "Wait on me. I will be finished in just a minute."

Jason: "Can you walk to my house with me to ask?"

Colby: "Sure. Let me call mom and make sure."

Jason: "Just let me pay and I'll be ready."

(Colby talking on phone with his mother quietly)

Colby: "Mom said I could and that you could come over to play."

Jason: "Great let's walk by my house first."

(Boys walking out of the store and down the road carrying bags)

Answer Sheet

(Two people standing in line at a store)

Jason: What did you buy while we were here?

Colby: I picked out two new shirts and a pair of jeans.

(Colby gets a big smile on his face)

Colby: I also got this (pointing at a new toy in a box) new train.

Jason: (excitedly) Wow that is the coolest train I have ever seen!

Colby: If you want you can come and play at my house.

Jason: I'll have to ask my mom, but I bet she will say I can.

Colby: I hope you can. We can get the new train set put together and play engineer.

Cashier: That will be 22.35 young man.

Colby: Here you go, mom gave me money to get some stuff.

Jason: Wait on me I will be finished in just a minute.

Jason: Can you walk to my house with me to ask?

Colby: Sure, let me call mom and make sure.

Jason: Just let me pay and I'll be ready.

(Colby talking on phone with his mother quietly)

Colby: Mom said I could and that you could come over to play.

Jason: Great let's walk by my house first.

(Boys walking out of the store and down the road carrying bags)