

Play Script: Creating Plot and Conflict

Worksheet 9

The plot of a play is what is happening. Most plays, to keep the audience engaged also have someone some type of conflict. Read each plot given below, write a conflict that would make sense with the plot provided.

Plot: Two friends having a sleep over

Conflict: _____
_____

Plot: A trip to the mall

Conflict: _____
_____

Plot: A baseball game

Conflict: _____
_____

Plot: Playing a game with a friend

Conflict: _____
_____

Plot: Getting a new puppy

Conflict: _____
_____

Plot: Cooking a special meal

Conflict: _____
_____

Answer Sheet (Sample answers are provided)

Plot: Two friends having a sleep over

Conflict: One friend get scared after watching a movie and wants to go home, the other doesn't want the friend to leave.

Plot: A trip to the mall

Conflict: Two girls head to the mall to shop, but one decides to take a bracelet without paying.

Plot: A baseball game

Conflict: The referee calls an out and people believe he is wrong.

Plot: Playing a game with a friend

Conflict: One friend loses the game and gets very angry.

Plot: Getting a new puppy

Conflict: The new puppy chews up mom's favorite pair of shoes.

Plot: Cooking a special meal

Conflict: The bread burns and the pasta boils over onto the stove.