

Sentence Openers

Worksheet 10

Read each sentence carefully and identify the opener. Circle the correct opener type from the choices given.

1) Laughing, Gretta entered the room full of children.

- a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

2) In the morning, we will leave for a week long vacation.

- a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

3) Slammed into the ice, the player was visibly shaken.

- a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

4) Although I like cats; I prefer a dog as a pet.

- a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

5) Confirmed by the news, we are expecting lots of ice and snow.

- a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

6) Skipping, John crossed the entire playground in a matter of minutes.

- a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

7) Although I do not enjoy homework; it is better than chores.

- a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

8) Flipped on its top, the car sat helplessly on the edge of the road.

- a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

9) I should be happy; however, I am overwhelmed at the gift.

- a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

10) In the driveway, stood a full grown horse with no rider.

- a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

Answer Sheet

1) Laughing, Gretta entered the room full of children.

a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

2) In the morning, we will leave for a week long vacation.

a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

3) Slammed into the ice, the player was visibly shaken.

a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

4) Although I like cats; I prefer a dog as a pet.

a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

5) Confirmed by the news, we are expecting lots of ice and snow.

a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

6) Skipping, John crossed the entire playground in a matter of minutes.

a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

7) Although I do not enjoy homework; it is better than chores.

a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

8) Flipped on its top, the car sat helplessly on the edge of the road.

a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

9) I should be happy; however, I am overwhelmed at the gift.

a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective

10) In the driveway, stood a full grown horse with no rider.

a) Preposition b) -Ing c) -Ed d) Connective