

Sentences with Connectors

Worksheet 5

Choose from the list given to offer a connective adverb to make each sentence make sense. Words can be used more than once.

(accordingly, additionally, also, anyway, besides, certainly, conversely, elsewhere, instead, meanwhile, nevertheless, otherwise, now, still, rather)

1. The children will work on a group project in class as a group; _____, they will do individual reports.
2. We will go to grandma's house at noon; _____, we will go to my aunt's house for dinner.
3. I will go to the museum with Sarah; _____, I will have to stay home and clean if I don't.
4. I have to use tape to hold up the poster; _____, the wall may be damaged.
5. I really like to eat lots of sweets and candies; _____, I have to eat vegetables and fruit if I want to be healthy.
6. We were going to go to the big aquarium in the city; _____, we decided to go to the nearby park while it was nice out.
7. Please take the trash out and put it in the bin; _____, make sure the lids are on tightly.
8. Sarah and Paul are going to practice the play at church; _____, we are going to make a gingerbread house.
9. The snowman melted in the heat; _____, we can make a new one when it snows again.
10. My sister likes to play outdoors in the dirt and mud; _____, I like to be indoors reading and playing with dolls.

Answer Sheet

(accordingly, additionally, also, anyway, besides, certainly, conversely, elsewhere, instead, meanwhile, nevertheless, otherwise, now, still, rather)

1. The children will work on a group project in class as a group; additionally, they will do individual reports.
2. We will go to grandma's house at noon; also, we will go to my aunt's house for dinner.
3. I will go to the museum with Sarah; besides, I will have to stay home and clean if I don't.
4. I have to use tape to hold up the poster; otherwise, the wall may be damaged.
5. I really like to eat lots of sweets and candies; nevertheless, I have to eat vegetables and fruit if I want to be healthy.
6. We were going to go to the big aquarium in the city; instead, we decided to go to the nearby park while it was nice out.
7. Please take the trash out and put it in the bin; also, make sure the lids are on tightly.
8. Sarah and Paul are going to practice the play at church; meanwhile, we are going to make a gingerbread house.
9. The snowman melted in the heat; still, we can make a new one when it snows again.
10. My sister likes to play outdoors in the dirt and mud; meanwhile, I like to be indoors reading and playing with dolls.