

Sentence Openers Similes

Worksheet 6

Use the similes provided in the boxes to fill into the sentences below so that they make sense. Cut out each box.

Like a lighthouse in the storm	As big as an elephant
Like the calm before the storm	As black as night
As busy as a beaver	As blind as a bat
As brave as a lion	As old as the hills

1. _____ the vase set covered in dust in the corner.
2. _____ the comfortable bed called to me after a rough day.
3. _____ the box took up the majority of the room.
4. _____ the child worked tirelessly on the arts and crafts project.
5. _____ the room went totally silent before the fight began.
6. _____ the kitten sat meowing in the bedroom, but could not be seen in the shadows.
7. _____ the little boy faced his fear of the dark with the help of a little night light.
8. _____, I walked right into the post without even seeing it.

Answer Sheet

Like a lighthouse in the storm	As big as an elephant
Like the calm before the storm	As black as night
As busy as a beaver	As blind as a bat
As brave as a lion	As old as the hills

1. As old as the hills the vase set covered in dust in the corner.
2. Like a lighthouse in the storm the comfortable bed called to me after a rough day.
3. As big as an elephant the box took up the majority of the room.
4. As busy as a beaver the child worked tirelessly on the arts and crafts project.
5. Like the calm before the storm, the room went totally silent before the fight began.
6. As black as night the kitten sat meowing in the bedroom, but could not be seen in the shadows.
7. As brave as a lion the little boy faced his fear of the dark with the help of a little night light.
8. As blind as a bat, I walked right into the post without even seeing it.