

Poetry

Worksheet 6

Read the short nursery rhyme below then follow the directions to create your own poem.

One, two, buckle my shoe.

Three, four, shut the door.

Five, six, pick up sticks.

Seven, eight shut the gate.

Nine, ten, home again.

Write your own rhyming poem with the given numbers below.

Two, four, _____

Four, six, _____

Six, eight, _____

Eight, ten, _____

Can you create your own short poem below where there are rhyming words in each line? Give it a try.

Answer Sheet (Sample answers only are given, each answer will be unique)

Write your own rhyming poem with the given numbers below.

Two, four, I ran into a door

Four, six, I tripped over rocks and sticks.

Six, eight, Should I try to jump the gate?

Eight, ten, Headed to the doctor again.

Can you create your own short poem below where there are rhyming words in each line? Give it a try.

There was a boy named Roy.

He had a dog named Frog.

They play in the rye and hay.

They swim in the lake and they take,

Naps under the tree, like me.

This pair, they seem to share everything

They will be friends until the end.