

Relative Clauses

Worksheet 3

A relative clause is a dependent clause that has a subject and a verb but cannot stand alone. Typically, the connecting words used are who, whom, whose, that, which, when, where, and why.

Directions: Using the relative pronouns and adjectives listed above to correctly fill in each blank in the sentences.

1. This is the man _____ was in the car accident.
2. Do you know the reason _____ the store is closed for the day?
3. I visited the state _____ I grew up.
4. My sisters, one of _____ is a teacher, live in a shared apartment.
5. The lady _____ dog is lost is looking for him at the shelter.
6. My favorite season is summer, _____ the days are long and warm.
7. I'm selling my bike _____ I got for my birthday.
8. I'm giving away this television, _____ has a 60-inch screen, to the first person that calls.
9. My favorite animal is the horse, _____ can be used as a pet, to ride, or for work.
10. My favorite time of day is early morning _____ everything is still quiet.
11. I visited the park _____ we used to play soccer on the weekends.
12. Can you guess the reason _____ you are being grounded?
13. My favorite family time is _____ we all sit around the table for dinner and share about our day.
14. The lady _____ works at the counter is my aunt.
15. The dog _____ owner lives next door, went on a vacation and asked me to care for him.

Answer Sheet

1. This is the man who was in the car accident.
2. Do you know the reason why the store is closed for the day?
3. I visited the state where I grew up.
4. My sisters, one of which is a teacher, live in a shared apartment.
5. The lady whose dog is lost is looking for him at the shelter.
6. My favorite season is summer, when the days are long and warm.
7. I'm selling my bike that I got for my birthday.
8. I'm giving away this television, which has a 60-inch screen, to the first person that calls.
9. My favorite animal is the horse, which can be used as a pet, to ride, or for work.
10. My favorite time of day is early morning when everything is still quiet.
11. I visited the park where we used to play soccer on the weekends.
12. Can you guess the reason why you are being grounded?
13. My favorite family time is when we all sit around the table for dinner and share about our day.
14. The lady who works at the counter is my aunt.
15. The dog whose owner lives next door, went on a vacation and asked me to care for him.