

Using to, too, and two correctly

The words too, to, and two all sound the same, but mean something different. Too means also or extra, two is the number, and to shows a specific person, place, thing, or goal.

Directions: Place the correct to/too/two in the blank to complete the sentence.

1. I am pleased ____ meet you.
2. Thank you for agreeing ____ meet me.
3. We ____ have a dream.
4. I have been told ____ make this offer.
5. We need ____ more buckets for the project.
6. I am trying ____ help you.
7. Will you go ____ the market and the mall _____?
8. I love ____ listen ____ rock music.
9. I want to be a fireman when I grow up _____.
10. Would you like ____ go skiing?
11. Does your teacher like ____ give homework?
12. The airport is ____ miles from here.
13. I need _____ tickets to the concert.
14. You are ____ old to be acting that way!
15. Are you going ____ give your report today?

Answer Sheet

1. I am pleased _to_ meet you.
2. Thank you for agreeing _to_ meet me.
3. We _too_ have a dream.
4. I have been told _to_ make this offer.
5. We need _two_ more buckets for the project.
6. I am trying _to_ help you.
7. Will you go _to_ the market and the mall _too_?
8. I love _to_ listen _to_ rock music.
9. I want to be a fireman when I grow up _too_.
10. Would you like _to_ go skiing?
11. Does your teacher like _to_ give homework?
12. The airport is _two_ miles from here.
13. I need _two_ tickets to the concert.
14. You are too_ old to be acting that way!
15. Are you going _to_ give your report today?