

Adverbs of Intensity

Worksheet 10

Adverbs often end in -er or -est to show intensity. Change the adverb in each sentence to make the sentence make sense to the greatest intensity.

Write the new sentence in the blank.

1. Birds can fly high than insects most of the time.

2. Did you kick the ball hard than Steven?

3. Will you be late than expected?

4. I can run fast than the other people in my class.

5. I bet I can make my kite fly high than the kite you made last night.

6. The little boy jump far than his friends.

7. This is the early I have ever had to get up.

8. She walked slow than the rest of the people on the trail.

9. Can you be the friend person in the group?

10. He walked the far to get to school.

Answer Sheet

1. Birds can fly high than insects most of the time.

Birds can fly higher than insects most of the time.

2. Did you kick the ball hard than Steven?

Did you kick the ball harder than Steven?

3. Will you be late than expected?

Will you be later than expected?

4. I can run fast than the other people in my class.

I can run faster than the other people in my class.

5. I bet I can make my kite fly high than the kite you made last night.

I bet I can make my kite fly higher than the kite you made last night.

6. The little boy jump far than his friends.

The little boy jumped further than his friends.

7. This is the early I have ever had to get up.

This is the earliest I have ever had to get up.

8. She walked slow than the rest of the people on the trail.

She walked slower than the rest of the people on the trail.

9. Can you be the friend person in the group?

Can you be the friendliest person in the group?

10. He walked the far to get to school.

He walked the furthest to get to school.