

Compound Sentences

Worksheet 6

Choose the coordinating conjunction that best completes each compound sentence.

1. Will you go to sleep early at the sleepover (and/or/but) stay up late watching television?
2. Timothy was angry (and/yet/so) he did not yell at anyone.
3. The bed was already made (for/so/nor) he took a nap on the couch.
4. Helen chose to put off her homework (nor/so/and) she regretted it the next day.
5. The goldfish was not something you could pet (so/and/nor) did it like to be cuddled.
6. The music was extremely loud (so/but/for) it sounded wonderful.
7. The lion loved his trainer (but/so/yet) he performed every trick he was asked.
8. Old MacDonald had a farm (so/for/but) all his animals had gone missing.
9. The movie was scary (but/for/so) I did not close my eyes once.
10. His eyes glistened with tears (and/for/so) he was very upset.
11. The batteries in the flashlight had gone bad (but/so/for) it would not turn on at all.
12. The butterfly fluttered around each flower (so/yet/and) it could find the perfect one for a meal.
13. The little lamb bleated happily (for/so/yet) it was happy to be so well cared for by the farmer.
14. The picture on the wall did not fit the frame (so/yet/nor) did it hang well on the wall.
15. The children laughed (so/but/nor) the clown continued being silly.

Answer Sheet

1. Will you go to sleep early at the sleepover (and/or/but) stay up late watching television?
2. Timothy was angry (and/yet/so) he did not yell at anyone.
3. The bed was already made (for/so/nor) he took a nap on the couch.
4. Helen chose to put off her homework (nor/so/and) she regretted it the next day.
5. The goldfish was not something you could pet (so/and/nor) did it like to be cuddled.
6. The music was extremely loud (so/but/for) it sounded wonderful.
7. The lion loved his trainer (but/so/yet) he performed every trick he was asked.
8. Old MacDonald had a farm (so/for/but) all his animals had gone missing.
9. The movie was scary (but/for/so) I did not close my eyes once.
10. His eyes glistened with tears (and/for/so) he was very upset.
11. The batteries in the flashlight had gone bad (but/so/for) it would not turn on at all.
12. The butterfly fluttered around each flower (so/yet/and) it could find the perfect one for a meal.
13. The little lamb bleated happily (for/so/yet) it was happy to be so well cared for by the farmer.
14. The picture on the wall did not fit the frame (so/yet/nor) did it hang well on the wall.
15. The children laughed (so/but/nor) the clown continued being silly.