

Comparative or Superlative

Worksheet 3

Read each sentence carefully. Choose the word that best fits. Remember that comparative is between two objects while superlative is between three or more.

1. That is the (firmer/firmer) mattress I have ever had to sleep on at a hotel.
2. The dog looks (angrier/angriest) than he did the last time
3. The (kinder/kindest) horse I have ever met was a huge draft horse.
4. The small dog was (more excitable/most excitable) than the large older dog.
5. The baby goat appeared (most anxious/more anxious) than the mama goat.
6. The party will be the (most glamorous/more glamorous) of the entire season.
7. She was the (fiercest/fiercer) warrior that has ever taken part in the challenge.
8. At age seven I was the (clumsier/clumsiest) kid you had ever seen.
9. I am (most determined/more determined) when I have several clear cut goals.
10. The crime was one of the (crueler/cruellest) acts ever completed by the criminal.

Use the given comparative or superlative adjective to create a unique sentence.

1. most beautiful

2. grumpiest

3. higher

Answer Sheet

1. That is the (firmer/firmest) mattress I have ever had to sleep on at a hotel.
2. The dog looks (angrier/angriest) than he did the last time
3. The (kinder/kindest) horse I have ever met was a huge draft horse.
4. The small dog was (more excitable/most excitable) than the large older dog.
5. The baby goat appeared (most anxious/more anxious) than the mama goat.
6. The party will be the (most glamorous/more glamorous) of the entire season.
7. She was the (fiercest/fiercer) warrior that has ever taken part in the challenge.
8. At age seven I was the (clumsier/clumsiest) kid you had ever seen.
9. I am (most determined/more determined) when I have several clear cut goals.
10. The crime was one of the (crueler/cruelest) acts ever completed by the criminal.

Sentences will vary but words should be used appropriately.