Solve the following word problems.

1. If a = 56,784, b = 29,509 and c = 43,337, then what will be the sum of all the three numbers?

2. A factory manufactures 653,908 black cars, 231,009 white cars and 100,220 blue cars in year 2013. How many cars did it make during that year?

3. According to a survey, 23,000 babies were born in a hospital last year and 26,895 babies are born in this year. How many babies are born in the hospital during these two years?

4. The total population of city X is 420,555, the total population of city Y is 374,009 and city Z has 117,340 people living in it. What is the total population of all the cities?

5. My dad had $76,231 saved in his bank account. He deposited $22,120 last month and another $20,550 this month. How much money does he have in his bank account now?

1) 129,630

2) 985,137

3) 49,895

4) 911,904

5) $ 118,901