

Directions: Cindi was researching humanitarian efforts for class. Help her fill in the missing words to complete the information for the group.

Though the actual countryside is _____ (starvation, stupendous, anticipate) the town in which the people live is very _____ (succour, deprived, rehabilitate). The buildings were once beautiful colors, but now appear _____ (engage, fallout, battered) and rundown. The entire area is on the _____ (brink, soccour, anticipate) of disaster. This is the _____ (anticipate, fallout, grim) after a war with a nearby village left the area in _____ (deprived, engage, destitution).

A local _____ (engage, rehabilitate, humanitarian) organization recently visited to assess the situation and were left with a _____ (grim, fallout, succour) picture of the area. They knew they wanted to _____ (engage, alleviate, rehabilitate) as many issues as possible, but to _____ (deprived, alleviate, rehabilitate) the area would be time and labor intensive. The first step was to assess immediate needs and then to _____ (anticipate, engage, stupendous) future needs. The immediate needs were to deal with the rampant _____ (succour, starvation, engage) that was causing villagers to get sick and even die. They dealt with this by offering _____ (engage, succour, alleviate) through fresh food and medication. As people began to heal, the organization made plans to dig a fresh water well, offer continued medical support through volunteers, and much more. The village is not yet thriving, but things are slowly improving.
