

Grade 7 Vocabulary

Week 16: Worksheet 3

Directions: A new school assignment is to write a newspaper column about a crime. Lottie is practicing writing out a sample report. Help her fill in the missing to complete his report.

The suspect is accused of possessing _____ (counterfeit, illicit, custody) photos of underage boys and girls. This is a highly volatile situation and crime. If proven guilty, the FBI will _____ (nefarious, collude, extradite) the suspect and turn him over to the right _____ (agencies, surveil, custody). While in _____ (custody, department, deputed) the suspect will face questioning about _____ (nefarious, smuggled, deputed) children that were forced into a type of illegal trade.

Information about the _____ (nefarious, treaty, surveil) plot was uncovered while another group was under _____ (custody, surveil, collude) by a different _____ (department, treaty, supervise). It was discovered that two different groups had started to _____ (supervise, collude, intercepted) about transporting children across international borders. The suspect was to _____ (supervise, intercepted, custody) the exchange just over the border. The shipment was _____ (custody, intercepted, smuggled) and all suspects taken into custody. The justice system will attempt to _____ (prosecute, counterfeit, department) and hopefully justice will be done for all involved.

Answer Key

Worksheet 3

illicit

extradite

agencies

custody

smuggled

nefarious

surveil

department

collude

supervise

intercepted

prosecuted

