Directions: The new class is being used to teach upper-level students about the American judicial system. Given a case, Grace must fill in the missing terms to help better understand the process. Help her fill in the missing to complete his report.

The accused is charged with _____ (assault, larceny, dexterity) of property worth over $5000. Working with an _____ (accomplice, inquest, benevolent), the pair also tried to _____ (stooge, boulevard, assault) the home owner when he interrupted the robbery. Luckily, a _____ (benevolent, malicious, forensic) neighbor heard the commotion and called the police.

When police arrived, the _____ (dexterity, propel, malicious) pair tried to play the police for a _____ (stooge, accomplice, subtle) by saying they were passing by and heard noise, so they tried to help. Thankfully, the police did not fall for the ruse and arrested the less than _____ (forensic, subtle, accomplice) pair.

They were taken into custody and a _____ (dexterity, boulevard, forensic) team went over the crime scene. What they found was shocking. One of the accused had scaled a rather large fence and then unhooked the alarm system. This would require great _____ (dexterity, propel, inquest). Using this information, an _____ (boulevard, assault, inquest) began and eventually one of the criminals confessed. As it turns out, the pair had robbed several homes on the _____ (wangle, boulevard, accomplice) and managed to _____ (wangle, subtle, malicious) their way out of trouble again and again. Thankfully, this time, they were caught in the act and will go to jail for several years.
