

Directions: Sammy was writing an article about a politician caught forging documents. Help him fill in the missing words to complete the article.

Governor March was _____ (donning, implicated, pandering) in a _____ (forgery, procure, signatories) scam today, though formal charges are yet to be filed. Governor March _____ (discretion, pandering, purportedly) signed his name as well as other _____ (signatories, interim, forgery) to documents without permission. This is more than unseemly, it is illegal, though it is considered a _____ (pandering, white-collar, interim) crime.

For those who are unfamiliar with Governor March, he was well known for _____ (discretion, restriction, pandering) to the crowds in his election speeches, but has not kept most of his campaign promises. He is also remembered for _____ (donning, restriction, evade) a racist costume during a party last year. He has not been well received since taking office, but the new reports that seem to have _____ (restriction, implicated, procure) him may be the final straw for his position.

If Governor March is indicted, it would be up to the _____ (regulatory, discretion, restriction) of the office whether he was allowed to continue serving until his term ended or whether an _____ (interim, evade, pandering) officer would be put in his place. We will know more as the story develops, so keep reading daily to follow this story as it unfolds.
